

Laws of the Game Amendments.

In 2017 The International Football Association Board (IFAB) reviewed the entire laws of football to make them easier for people to read and understand. This would also ensure that the laws are appropriate for football in the 21st century and promote “Fair Play.”

Summary of all the changes

Summary of the changes - for media, coaches, players and spectators

Full list of changes

Law Changes - Full Presentation

Presentation on Law 12 Changes - Denying an obvious goal scoring opportunity

Video clips of major changes

All the documents and videos have been produced by International Football Association Board and Football Federation Victoria to assist all stakeholders with their understanding of the changes that have been made to this year’s edition of the Laws of the Game

If there are any further questions regarding the changes for 2017 please contact the FFSA Referee Department.

Phone: 08 8340 3088

Email: refadmin@ffsa.com.au