Club philosophy

Hahndorf is a club that places great emphasis on community involvement and nurturing of junior players to become loyal and long-term club members. Whilst it is recognised that soccer is a competitive sport; positive outcomes can be reached in many ways. We define this positive outcome as someone who enjoys participating in a team sport, gains the benefit of exercise, skills and fun, plus being part of the community.

Currently, a majority of the Committee Members are having to take on several roles for the club to function

Please consider joining the committee and attending a monthly meeting. Your help would be greatly received

Volunteers

All roles undertaken at the Hahndorf Soccer Club are done so voluntarily, without payment. In order to run as a successful club, we do need to work together with all members prepared to help in some way. Tasks need to be undertaken for all games are:

	Home Games	Away Games
U8 U9 U10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pitch Set-up • Game leader • Canteen helper • Oranges/lollies • Ground Steward • Match write-up • Results input 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Oranges/lollies • Ground Steward • Match write-up • Results input

Coaches

The Hahndorf Soccer Club strives to provide the best coaches for all teams. A majority of coaches are volunteer parents, we will however assist with funding coaching courses and endeavor to have them trained and up to date with relevant FFA (Football Federation Australia) qualifications. Anyone interested in becoming involved with coaching will be welcomed and supported by the club.

Senior Teams

The club has nominated two men's teams for 2020, encouraging a cohesive playing group within the Club, a blended mix of experience and youngsters. The club will also field a senior women's team with a combination of youngsters and experienced players, plus beginners wishing to become part of a dynamic and friendly team.

Junior Teams

The club will continue to foster participation in soccer at all age groups. Children from the ages of 5 and 6 years can join in with the 'Miniroos' program – they practise once a week and enjoy getting out there and having a go. Non-competitive (modified rules) teams start with the Under 8 age group - this is where children start to learn the basics of the game, practise once a week and have a game on a Saturday morning. Parents are asked to assist with the managing of the teams and running the games. The competitive (Under 12 and above) age groups are where coaches introduce more skill-based learning and rules of the game. The Adelaide Hills Referees Branch (AHRB) provide paid referees to control the games. We will endeavor to field teams in all junior girls' and boys' competitions.

Codes of Conduct

The Hahndorf Soccer Club has a proud tradition of fair play and good sportsmanship. It is committed to providing a positive, safe and fun environment that will encourage all players to develop their soccer skills and their self-confidence, while promoting fair play and the enjoyment of participating in a competitive team sport.

To achieve this, it is important that all members understand and abide by the Club's Players Code of Conduct and Supporters/Parents Code of Conduct as outlined.

Players Code of Conduct

- Attend training sessions and matches at times established by the coach. If unable to attend, inform the coach as soon as possible
- Respect and follow the directions of the coach during training sessions and matches
- Act respectfully towards coaches, officials, opponents and team mates. Abusive language is unacceptable
- Respect the facilities and equipment of their own club and opposing clubs

- Violent behavior and any form of harassment toward any player, official or spectator is unacceptable

Supporters/Parents Code of Conduct

- Be supportive of the coach. The coach is generally a club member who has volunteered their personal time
- Be positive and supportive of the player
- Accept the results of each game and encourage the player to be gracious in victory and to turn defeat into victory by working towards improving
- Avoid criticising the coach, other players and officials
- Your conduct and language should reflect and support the Club's ideals of good sportsmanship. Abusive language is unacceptable
- Let the coach do the coaching, allowing them time to talk to players at half time

- Remember, the player is there for their enjoyment

Junior Respect Program

The Club follows the philosophy of the “Respect Program” – Respect your coach, Respect your team mates and Respect your Club.

Guidelines to remember:

- Listen – when your coach is speaking your mouth is closed; you can ask questions, however wait for your coach to finish and do not talk back or argue.
- Pay attention – when listening do not get distracted by other players.

This is for the enjoyment of everyone. If players choose not to be Respectful, then there will be a consequence:

- Warning – you will be clearly told that you are being warned and why,
- Yellow Card – suspended for half of the next game, or
- Red Card – suspended for the next full game

In the event of a penalty, either the coach or junior coordinator will speak to the player/parent involved and explain the club's program.

With respect to either Card being received the expectation is that the player will still attend all training sessions and support their team on game day. If the player does not attend the 'suspended' game the Card will roll over to the following game.

Training

The overall responsibility for training will be with the coach, however Junior parents should be present at training. If for any reason parents are unable to stay with their child/ren they must inform the coach who is to be responsible for the child in the case of any emergency. The coach cannot provide assistance in an emergency as they are responsible for the whole team.

Senior men's, women's, Under 16s and Under 17 Girls training started in late January. Training will continue throughout the season on a Thursday evening, with some indoor training planned for June.

Junior Non-competitive teams will train on Wednesday nights at Pine Avenue (our Home ground) and the Competitive teams will train once a week at the Mylor oval.

Training details will be finalised when the teams are announced.

Uniform and Equipment

The club will supply every player with a club shirt for use during the season and it will be the player's responsibility to look after the shirt and return it to the team manager at the end of the season. Players are responsible for their own boots, shin pads, socks and shorts.
